Interpersonal Speaking: Conversation

In this part of the examination, you will need to participate in a conversation. The situation will be a role-playing simulated telephone conversation. You will have 1 minute to read a preview of the conversation. Then the telephone call will begin. Be sure to follow the outline. Each time it is your turn to speak, you will have 20 seconds in which to respond. You should participate as fully and appropriately as possible. You will find the recorded message and the recorded portions of the conversation on the accompanying recording. The script appears on page 51.

- Read the introduction and conversation outline carefully to see what the conversation will be about.
- Decide in what tense(s) you might need to respond (present, past, future, and so on).
- While reading the conversation outline you may wish to jot down some verbs, nouns, etc., that you may wish to use.
- While you listen to each line of the dialogue, try to pick out words, expressions, or phrases that you might be able to use. (BE CAREFUL, though, to not just restate what you have heard!)
- Higher scores are awarded for conversations in which complex structures and rich vocabulary are used.
- Be sure to look over the rubric at the end of Chapter 9 to see how you will be rated.

Tienes 1 minuto para leer la introducción y el esquema de la conversación.

Introducción: Ésta es una conversación con tu amiga Juana sobre planes para una fiesta en casa de otra amiga.

[The shaded lines reflect what you will hear on the recording. Las líneas en gris reflejan lo que escucharás en la grabación.]

Juana: • [El teléfono suena.] Contesta el teléfono.

Tú: • Salúdala.

• Explicale por qué tú la has llamado.

Juana: • Te explica por qué te había llamado.
