

Checklist for getting a B or better:

- I speak Spanish in class.
- I listen and watch when the teacher is speaking, trying hard to understand.
- In class, I'm on task and I follow routines.
- I do my homework on time.
- I read instructions.
- I look things up when I don't understand.
- I call a friend from class when I need help understanding.
- I study for tests following any instructions provided.
- I refer to my book & online resources.
- I come in during B-lunch, before or after school when I need more help. (Especially if you are doing all the above and you still don't have a B—or an A for that matter, PLEASE do come see me! This would be a big concern to me.)

Thanks for meeting me half-way!

p.s. All late work turned in Oct. 11 or before has been entered in Skyward.
